JNANA YAGNA:

Swami Chinmayananda referred to the term "Jnana Yagna" for a series of talks and described them as a Yagna where our ignorance is sacrificed in the fire of knowledge. This is an opportunity to grow as a person and learn from the disciple of the most insightful teacher of Vedanta of our generation.

PLEASE CALL K.C.K. REDDY @ (409)729-3945 or SBRAH CHERUVU @ 860- 5987 FOR ANY ENQUIRIES REGARDING THE TALKS.

BRAHMACHARI PRABODH CHAITANYA

Br. Prabodh Chaitanya gave talks on Bhagavatam on Cantos 1, 2 and 3 in 2005 and 2006 in Beaumont. The talks were very well received as they conveyed the message in lucid style with great devotion. His charming style and youthful personality was instant hit with all age groups. Prabodhji is fluent in English, Hindi and Gujarati and is proficient in Sanskrit. He enjoys teaching Vedanta, Bhagavad Gita and devotional texts like Ramayana and Srimad Bhagawatam.

Prabodhji comes with IT background and was working in Orlando when he was inspired into a life of spirituality after reading Pujya Swami Chinmayanandaji's commentary on the Bhagavad Gita and decided to dedicate his life to the study of scriptures and the service of humanity. While working in Orlando, he served for six years at Chinmaya Mission Orlando in various capacities and subsequently went to India to participate in celebrations of the 50th anniversary of the founding of the Chinmaya Mission. He studied Vedanta for the next two years under the grace and guidance of Pujya Swami Tejomayananda and tutelage of Swami Ishwarananda. Since his appointment as Acharya of Chinmaya Mission San Jose in 2004, Prabodhji has been conducting Vedanta discourses in the bay area of California. He has also conducted Jnana Yagnas, camps, and retreats all over the United States and Canada. With his affability, sense of humor, and passion for the Vedanta, Prabodhji captivates his audiences - young and old alike.

Prabodhji has also participated in interfaith programs, has been interviewed by numerous newspapers, radio stations, and Ph.D. students of Philosophy from US universities. He has also addressed social issues in a documentary that depicts the power of meditation and the philosophy of the Vedanta in solving them.
